Mr. Ivan Bwowe

Lawyer and Advocate of the high court

Speaker, #MakerereAt100 Inaugural Twitter Space

Bwowe Ivan is a Ugandan politician and lawyer who served as the 80th Makerere University Guild President from 2014 to 2015. He is known for his negotiations with President Museveni that resulted in an increase in the lecturer's pay and challenging tuition increments.

In March 2014, Bwowe was voted as a student leader for Makerere University 2014–2015 becoming the first independent candidate to win the guild presidency. He has served as a member of the Makerere University Council, and on various committees of the university council which include, the Finance Committee, Estate and Works and the University Senate.

Bwowe is currently working on a project to combat the trafficking of women and girls from Uganda to the Middle East disguised as labour externalization. He received an honorary mention from the GRO-GEST which is under the Auspice of UNESCO for his work on the project.
