Mr. Asaph Ng'ethe Macua

Author of 'From Misery to Joy'

Born in Karura, Nairobi, in 1930 Asaph Nge'the Macua was born into a family that characterised the shifts in attitudes brought about by the spread of religion during the lifespan of the Kenyan colony. His father, initially a stonemason by craft, later became a church leader, introducing a young Macua to school and education.

The young artist, would later train attend the illustrious Alliance High and was formally trained at Makere University.
